MEMORANDUM FOR THE RECORD

SUBJECT: Conversation with Russ Neeley: Possible Impact of Gramm-Rudman-Hollings on Supplemental Appropriations
Legislation in Fiscal year 1986

1. On January 30, 1986, I called Russ Neeley, Office of Management and Budget (OMB). I suggested that when considering whether or not the "Gramm-Rudman-Hollings" Act might have an impact on supplemental appropriations legislation, he should consider the following sections of that Act: 1) Section 275 (effective dates); 2) Section 311 (a) (point of order against new spending authority bill which exceeds continuing resolution); and, 3) Section 401 (b) (1) (point of order apparently effective against all supplemental appropriations occurring after adoption of continuing resolution).

2. He indicated that he would discuss the matter with the appropriate individuals in OMB.
